SOURCE Arev, Vol 30, No 9199, 1949.LENINAKAN TEXTILE FACTORY BEING ENLARGED

The textile factory at Leninakan, Armenian SSR, has been undergoing improvements. Additional wings being added to the building, and homes for the employees are being constructed nearby. In addition, there will be a bus service, a workmen's club, and a restaurant.

The first addition will be completed by 1 May 1949. The entire project for improvements will cost 25 million rubles.

The factory produces large quantities of textiles, including high-quality women's silk stockings, silk fabrics, etc.

Its annual output includes 15 million pairs of stockings and 2 million bolts of fabrics.

Hundreds of youths are trained in the factory as mechanical technicians and apprentices.
